For your Consideration: A glance backwards and a look forward

Gill Trophy: This week SM Sailing held the second of four regattas when it hosted the very successful Gill Trophy, the junior girls championship, in Duxbury Bay. Thirty-four boats competed in the nine race series over two-days in a variety of conditions. The top three (Carlson/Leary from Stage Harbor, Fuller/ Maggioni from Chatham and Eastman/Cotoia from Hyannis) separated themselves from the pack early on day two and had a great final race to decide the championship. A full recap is listed on Regatta Network.

Prosser/Ginn Trophy: Now the focus turns to the SM Sailing Adult Championship - the Prosser/Ginn Trophy to be sailed in Flying Scots as part of the Chatham Regatta. Chatham Regatta is the oldest, free regatta on Cape Cod and in that spirit there is no entry fee to compete in the Prosser/Ginn (Just a refundable damage deposit) Clubs that are interested in sending a team should consult the event website on Regatta Network. Space is limited, so sign up while you still can.

Grand Prix: The Grand Prix is in full swing. The C420 have completed three of their four events and today in at Wianno, the Optis wrap up their third of six. Full details and up-to-date results can be access through the links below.

Team Racing: Registration is open for the 2018 SM Sailing Team Racing Championship for the Wes Durant Trophy. Regatta is a BYO Boat and Pinnies event at Wianno. More information an be fund on Regatta Network.
