For your Consideration: Chatham YC captures 2018 Cumming Cup

What a great day of racing last Friday on Pleasant Bay. The sun was out, the humidity was down, and the breeze, while fickle at times, created a fair test for those versed enough to see all of her changing patterns. Four clubs - Chatham YC, Pleasant Bay CB, Stage Harbor YC, & Stone Horse YC - sett off in a shifty NE breeze for race one and it was Chatham that prevailed with Pleasant Bay second. In the second race, PBCB stole line honors from Chatham on the final upwind leg. Chatham then repaid the favor after PBCB had opened up a big lead, only to watch helplessly as the wind shifted 90 degrees on the "downwind" leg. PBCB battled back to finish second and set up a showdown in the 4th and maybe final race. Chatham jumped to an early lead and despite some confusion with the course layout was able to stay ahead of PBCB to win the 2018 Cumming Cup - Chatham's first title since Event Chair John Dickson won it in 1987. Pleasant Bay CB had a really solid regatta finishing second and Stage Harbor won the final race to finish third.
