For your Consideration:

Life is as we know it is changing rapidly as the Coronavirus moves across the world. What does this mean for SM Sailing? Unknown at this time. Many clubs have decided to close voluntarily. Governor Baker's declaration yesterday regarding gathers should mean the temporary closure of the rest.

The next set of announcements we can expect to hear will be from US Sailing regarding Instructor courses. As of this morning, they have cancelled all course through April 15th. Those registered for an April class should expect an e-mail from them soon.

SM Sailing will not make decisions on our summer regattas until June 1st at the earliest. We recommend that Yacht Clubs wait until that date too. Yes, it is a brave new world, but I am hopeful that things will "return to normal" as we enter the summer. Until then, practice social distancing, check on each other, and wash your hands.
